COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, 18TH JAN. 1879.

THE commercial telegrams received from Home during the week have at length shown signs of returning activity in some of the leading markets for Eastern produce. The returns of the Bank of England published in London on Thursday last were of a decidedly more satisfactory nature than they have been of late, and led to a reduction in the Bank's rate of discount to four per cent., to which in great measure may be attributed the increased demand for Cotton in Liverpool and Piece Goods in Manchester. These Markets have, however, also been favourably affected by the falling off in the Receipts of Cotton at the American Ports, the total for the week being only 111,000 bales against 151,000 bales last year.

Notwithstanding the more favourable accounts from the English Markets, business in Bombay cannot be said to have shown any material signs of improvement. Money is, week by week getting tighter, and the feeling of distrust which has prevailed for so long in the Bazaar continues unabated. The better feeling which we reported last week has quite died away, and rumours of the wildest description continue to find credence in the Bazaar respecting the stability of firms of undoubted opulence. The effect of a rapid rise in Exchange has been to impede Exports without to any great extent increasing the demand for imports. Our local Spinning and Weaving Companies are in a disastrous position; it is currently reported that about one-third of those now in existence are about to be wound up; two of them during the week have been handed over to the tender mercies of the Insolvent Court, and others must follow. No doubt many of the mills now in a state of bankruptcy will be resuscitated, and under good management will become paying concerns, but in the meantime the values of the shares of really well managed institutions are suffering from the revelations recently made public in connection with those that are quite the reverse.

At the close for the mail the position of our various markets is as follows:—Cotton, owing to the continued short supplies, is maintained at abnormally high rates. Linseed is in good demand and dearer. Rapeseed dull. Gingelly seed in fair request. Wheat unchangeable. In Imports, Piece Goods are slightly steadier. Yarns dull and neglected. Metals generally out of demand. Exchange strong and advancing. Government Paper steady. Shares depressed. Money tight. Freights, after some slight improvement, have relapsed into their previous state of stagnation.

At the weekly biddings for Council Drafts on India which took place in London on Wednesday last, of the £400,000 offered, £250,000 were allotted to Calcutta, and £150,000 to Bombay, at any average of 1s. 7-35d. on Calcutta and 1s. 7-37d. on Bombay. Tenders on Calcutta at 1s. 7 7-16 received five per cent. and on Bombay at 1s. 7¾d. in full. The average rate shows an advance of about 2 per cent. on last week's allotment. The result was somewhat beyond what was generally anticipated here, and is evidently more favourable than was expected in London as Bar Silver advanced from 50d. to 50 7-16d. per oz. and lastterly to 50¾d. per oz. A shipment of the Metal of £10,000 is advised by last Thursday's P. and O. steamer from Southampton, and, although the amount is small it indicates a renewal of demand, being as it is the first shipment made for many weeks. At the close, however, rather a weaker feeling is said to exist in the Market.

MONEY.—The last published return of the Bank of Bombay for the week ending on the 11th instant was again less favourable. An increased trade demand for Money was manifested, and heavy withdrawals have been made on account of Government. The Cash Balance shows a reduction of 25¼ lacs. As was generally anticipated, the Directors of their Board Meeting on Wednesday last raised the rates of interest and discount 1 per cent. all round, and they now stand at 6 per cent. on fixed Loans on Government Deposits, 7 percent. on demand Loans on similar Securities, and 8 per cent. on Mercantile Bills. It is probable that we may shortly see higher rates, as Money in the Bazaar is only obtainable on much dearer terms. The pressure is scarcely likely to be of long duration, as though the present supply of funds is far from excessive, Council Drafts and Silver are available to an almost unlimited extent at exceptionally cheap rates.

EXCHANGE.—The upward turn in rates to which we referred last week, has extended since last mail-day to a very materisl advance, but the operations in Sterling continue on a moderate scale, as both sellers and buyers of Bills are inclined to restrict their transactions to their immediate requirements only which, in the present condition of business, are not large. Business opened on Tuesday morning on the basis of 1s. 7 3-16d. for demand Bank and 1s. 7¼d. for 3 months' sight Credit Bills, or an advance of 1-16 per Rupee on the closing quotations for the previous mail. On Wednesday a further advance of 1-16 to ¼ was established, and on Thursday morning when the result of the allotment of Council Bills was known here rates further rose ¼. On Friday and Saturday the upward movement continued, and our closing quotations for the mail are ⅜ per rupee above those of last week:—viz., Bank Bills on demand 1s. 7 13-32d.; 6 months' sight 1s. 8 1-16d. Credits, 3 months' sight 1s. 8d.; 6 months' sight 1s. 8¼d. Documents, 3 months' sight 1s. 8 1-16d.; 6 months' sight 1s. 8 5-16d. On Paris the rate for 3 months' sight Mercantile Bills is Francs 2·12 and six months' sight Francs 2·14 per Rupee For future delivery sales of 3 months' sight Credits have been reported for March delivery at 1s. 8¼d. per rupee, but there is not much Paper offering on these terms. Our Market throughout has been greatly influenced by Calcutta where rates are almost identical with those ruling here. That the present advance in Sterling is due more to the tightness of Money than to increased activity in our Export trade is self-evident, but rates have consequently undulyy depressed by the action of Government in offering large amounts of Council Bills during a period of extreme stagnation in Eastern Commerce. That a reaction may occur after the recent rapid advance, is probable, but that we shall see a return to the low rates recently ruling is most improbable; as although we commence our busy season with prices of produce exceptionally low, and supplies unusually limited, large crops of Cotton and Seeds are still locked for, and have still to be financed for, as the forward sales of Sterling hitherto are reported to have been very small.

On Calcutta a fair amount of business has been reported during the week. The closing rates are par for demand drafts and 1¼ per cent. discount for 60 days' sight Bills.

On China the nominal quotation for 60 days' sight Mercantile Bills is still Rs. 217 per 100 dollars.

From Hongkong the latest telegraphic quotation for 6 months' sight Bank Bills on demand is 3s. 8¼d. per dollar, and from Shanghai 5s. 10d. per tael.

GOVERNMENT SECURITIES were very weak for some days after last mail left, but latterly there has been a firmer feeling. The old Four-and-a-half per cent. loan lapsed on the 15th instant; interest from that date being payable at four per cent. We quote:—Rs. 94 for the Four per cent. and Rs. 99½ for the Four-and-a-half per cent. Loan.

SHARES.—This Market as yet shows no signs of improvement. The movements in Bank Shares consist of a decline of Rs. 5 per Share in Agras, an advance of Rs. 6 in Nationals, and a decline of Rs. 14 in Bombays. In Spinning and Weaving Companies the rapid decline in values continues. The Shares of the Albert Mills have fallen to Rs. 100 each, Alexandras to Rs. 10, Alfred to Rs. 1,000, Alliance to Rs. 1,250, Bhownuggur to Rs. 900, Bombay United to Rs. 800, Bombay Hemp and Jute to Rs. 50, Colaba to Rs. 25, Coorla to Rs. 760, Dhurumsey to Rs. 440, Fleming to Rs. 15, Great Eastern to Rs. 830, Jewraz Balloo to Rs. 700, Khandeish to Rs. 775, Khatow Manoosjee to Rs. 625, Mandvie to Rs. 90, Manockjee Petits to Rs. 1,060, Morarjee to Rs. 950, National to Rs. 650, Neriad to Rs. 10, Nursey to Rs. 8, Oriental to Rs. 605, Prince of Wales to Rs. 275, Sholapore to Rs. 775, Victoria to Rs. 475. In Land Companies Colabas have advanced to Rs. 740, Freres have declined to Rs. 100, and Mazagons to Rs. 550. In Press Companies the tendency has also been downwards, Bersts having declined from Rs. 415 to Rs. 390 and Mofussil-, owing in great measure to a call of Rs. 50 per share, from Rs. 215 to Rs. 175 per share.

IN PIECE GOODS there is little change to report. A moderate enquiry has prevailed in the Bazaar during the week for the leading makes of Grey Goods resulting in an offtake of about 2,000 packages, but from first hands business continues very restricted, and the total sales have not amounted to more than 400 to 500 packages in all. The recent rise in Sterling Exchange has no doubt been of inestimable importance to "Indenters," whose supplies have been coming forward of late to a dull market, and whose remittances to pay for the same have been made at such ruinous rates. The prices of food grains are still maintained at exorbitant prices, and until an improvement sets in in this respect we cannot look for any great increase in the up-Country demand for goods. Stocks are more than ample for present requirements, but the shipments from Home are not excessive. In Grey Goods the chief business of the week has as usual been in Shirtings, but Mulls and Printers have also been in moderate demand. Of Bleached Goods the sales have been mostly in Mulls and Jaconets which command some attention. In Dyed and Printed Cloths business is practically at a standstill, as with the exception of some enquiry for Turkey Red Cambrics there is nothing doing. Local made goods are in rather more request at lower rates, but no sales of any importance have been made.

TWIST.—Only a very small business has again been done during the week in English Yarns, and prices are unchanged throughout. In local Spinnings also only small sales are reported at easier rates.

METALS.—Copper.—No transactions have been reported during the week, and prices are nominally unchanged. In Yellow Metal sales of Braziers have been effected at Rs. 38 to Rs. 38½ per cwt., which shows an advance of 4 as. to Re. 1 per cwt. on the last sales reported. Iron is unchanged.

COALS.—The Market is firm for spot parcels, and there is also a fair demand for cargoes to arrive at fully previous rates. There are, however very few cargoes offering, as shipments from the other side continue small. The only sale reported is of a cargo of Cardiff, January sailing via Canal at Rs. 21½ per ton. The quotation for Lady Windsor Welsh Hartley is now Rs. 20 to Rs. 21 per ton, and for DAVISON'S West Hartley Rs. 22 to Rs. 22½ per ton landed.

COTTON.—The telegrams received from Liverpool during the week have reported increased firmness, the week's sales have amounted to 64,000 bales, and prices for Surats show a partial advance of 1-16th to ⅛d. per lb. Mid.-Orleans is still quoted at 5 9-16d., but Fair Dholleras has advanced to 4 5-16d. per lb. The recorded transactions in ready Cotton in Bombay are still very small and only amount to about 2,000 bales, of which about 800 bales are for local consumption. Owing to the continued paucity of supplies dealers are demanding an advance of Rs. 2 to Rs. 3 per candy, and this coupled with the advance in Exchange, tends to cause firmer rates. For February and March delivery sales have also only been on a very small scale, as notwithstanding the reported firmness in the Home markets, the general feeling here is certainly in favour of lower rates hereafter. Nothing has been done in Dholleras yet. Crop accounts continue very contradictory, and sellers are apparently afraid to do anything until they have the Cotton actually in hand. Oomrawuttee descriptions are arriving rather more freely at the up-country marts, but supplies are nevertheless very meagre for the season of the year. Of Broach we still look for good supplies hereafter. Compta and Dharwar also promise well.

The Receipts from up-Country for the week ending on the 18th instant are 10,248 bales against 10,666 bales last week and 33,198 bales for the corresponding week last year. The total since 1st September now stands at 98,399 bales against 171,737 bales for the same period last year.

The Clearances for Sea since last mail left have been only 658 bales, making 7274 bales since 1st Jan. against 13,096 bales last year and 22,514 for the corresponding week in 1877.

The following are to-day's quotations for full pressed Cotton with the equivalents in Sterling, Cost, and Freights to Liverpool via Canal without Commission:—

Old—
Dholleras Good Fair ready	....	Rs. 170 =	4 9/16d.
Oomrawuttee Fully Good Fair	.... „	176 =	4 11/16d.
New—
Oomrawuttee Good	.... „	195 =	5 3/16d.
Do. Fully Good Fair	.... „	190 =	5 1/16d.
Do. Good Fair	.... „	185 =	4¾d.
Do. Good (Feb. delivery)	.... „	194 =	5 3/16d.
Hingunghaut „ ready	.... „	220 =	5 15/16d.
Do. „ (Feb. delivery)	.... „	218 =	5 13/16d.
M. G. Broach „ ready	.... „	204 =	5 7/16d.
Dholleras (April delivery)	.... „	183 =	4 15/16d.

FOR LINSEED there have again been more buyers, and from this cause as well as continued short supplies, the price for ready Seed has advanced 1 anna per cwt., to-day's quotation being Rs. 6-3 to Rs. 6-4 per cwt. No business has been reported in the New Crop during the week and accounts respecting it are somewhat conflicting. We have, however, still every reason to believe that it will be considerably in excess of last season.

RAPESEED is very dull. The stocks now held in Bombay of all descriptions are small, and dealers are consequently holding out for high rates. Buyers, however, have, as a rule, withdrawn from the Market. For Guzerat we still quote Rs. 6-12 to Rs. 6-14 per cwt.

In GINGELLY SEED there is still a fair business passing. Arrivals are moderate, and find buyers at Rs. 37 to 41 per candy.

In WHEAT there is still nothing doing for Export. Prices for food grain of all sorts continue to rule so high that there is little prospect of shippers being able to operate in this article until the New Crop is marketed in April next. The nominal quotations are still Rs. 41 for White, Rs. 39 for Mixed, and Rs. 37 per candy for Red.

NEWS FROM KANDAHAR.

MURDEROUS ATTACKS BY FANATICS.

KANDAHAR, THROUGH QUETTA, JAN. 10.

A disbanded soldier of the Amir's troops to-day fired at Major St. John, Political officer, but fortunately missed him. About the same time another fanatic wounded severely Lieutenant Willis, of the Artillery, and several soldiers. The first assassin is a prisoner, but the second was hacked to pieces. The city was thrown into great confusion, the shops being shut and the populace dispersed from the streets.

The whole of General Stewart's troops have now arrived, except the Ghoorkes and 40 sappers. JAN. 11.

Major St. John's would-be assassin was executed within the city. A proclamation has been issued warning people against carrying arms.

Supplies are rather insufficient for the large force now encamped here, and movements of troops are shortly expected. General Biddulph's division will proceed to Girishk, seventy miles on the Herat road, while General Stewart's will move upon Khelat Ghilzai. The former move on the 14th.

NEWS FROM KABUL.

LAHORE, JAN. 18.

SIR MICHAEL HICKS BEACH AT STROUD.

He was convinced, he said, with reference to European politics, that the strict execution of the Treaty of Berlin had no likelihood of disturbing the relations between Russia and England.

At the High Court on Saturday last, two petitions for the winding-up of the Nursey and Colaba Spinning and Weaving Mills, to which Nursey Kessowjee was the secretary, treasurer, and agent, were heard before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Green. Both mills were ordered to be wound up by the court, Mr. H. R. Cormack being appointed provisional liquidator for the former, and Mr. Heerjeebhoy Hormusjee Shroff for the latter, until the 30th inst., when official liquidators will be appointed in chambers.

THE Nemesis of their alleged misdeeds has at last overtaken the directors of the Nursey, the Colaba, the New Fleming, and the New Alexandra Spinning and Weaving Companies. On Saturday evening last, informations were laid against them before Mr. Cooper, the Chief Presidency Magistrate, at his bungalow, Malabar Hill, by Mathuradas Lowjee and Cullianjee Narronjee, moonim of Waghjee Coorjee, shareholders and creditors of the four mills referred to; and the magistrate directed warrants to issue for the arrest of Kessowjee Naik, Nursey Kessowjee (his son), Ghellabhoy Pudumsey (Kessowjee's cousin), Cursetjee Nusserwanjee Cama, and Sakuchund Nagurdas, directors of the mills,—Nursey Kessowjee being also the secretary, treasurer, and agent to them all. In these informations, Nursey Kessowjee is accused of having, with the knowledge and consent of the directors, fraudulently and dishonestly misappropriated Rs. 7,42,752 from the monies of the Nursey; Rs. 9,80,398 from those of New Fleming; Rs. 3,66,300 from those of the Colaba; and Rs. 6,13,735 from those of the New Alexandra Spinning Companies, the total amount misappropriated by him thus being Rs. 27,03,185. The aggregate liabilities of the four mills are given at Rs. 48,71,071. In obtaining loans from the Bank of Bombay on the 11th December 1878, the directors are accused of having fraudulently and dishonestly, in a statement given by them to the Bank, understated these liabilities by Rs. 23,06,071, that is less than one half the actual amount of debts. Yesterday (Sunday) the advocates of Nursey Kessowjee, Ghellabhoy Pudumsey, and Sakurchund Nagurdas, attended at Mr. Cooper's bungalow and offered to surrender their respective clients before the warrants could be executed. It was arranged that they should appear before the magistrate at the Fort Police Court at 11 a.m. to-day (Monday), or else that the warrants should be executed against them.

MR. HERBERT BIRDWOOD, C.S., Judge of Surat, has passed his examination at Cambridge for the degree of Master of Laws. Mr. Birdwood graduated as a Wrangler in the Mathematical Tripos in 1858, was the head of the second class in Natural Science in 1859 (highly distinguished in Botany), and was the same year elected Fellow of St. Peter's College.

WE hear from Goa that the new Governor General has set in earnest about reforming and infusing vigour into all the administrative departments, and by making himself familiar with their working and his own personal inspection he is evidently determined to leave things in a better state than he found them. His Excellency is a man of considerable energy and experience, and while Governor of other Portuguese colonies he is reported to have made vast improvements and materially aided their prosperity. At Goa great expectations are entertained of the wide and permanent benefits that will be secured to the country during his administration.

THE Pioneer :—There was no impulse given by the Government of India to bring about the very emphatic economy circular that Sir Richard Temple put forth lately; at least no impulse of an unusual kind. But there appears to be a custom in force with the Financial Department according to which a certain circular is always issued to Provincial Governments when cash balances fall below a defined level, and this circular was lately issued, just before Sir Richard Temple's manifesto. It seems to have gone to other Governments besides his, but not elsewhere to have given rise to such impassioned adjirations to the Engineers. Rumour declares that Sir Richard had spent his money rather too quickly, and was glad of the excuse for putting on the drag.

SOME further particulars than those already published have come to hand regarding the murderous assault at Lahore on Mrs. Gordon by her kitmudghur. The Indian Daily News says :—"She was writing at a table in the sitting room when the kitmudghur suddenly entered, almost destitute of clothing, and with a wildness of aspect which betokened that he meant mischief. Mrs. Gordon started up, and was pursued several times round the table by him. Her invalid sister, Miss Willes, who was lying on a sofa, sprang up and clutched the man in the hope to ward off the danger impending over her sister. The man threw down Miss Willes, and leaving her, continued his pursuit of poor Mrs. Gordon. Having caught her, he threw her on the floor, and stooping over her, cut fiercely at her with a knife which he had been brandishing. Her throat and face were repeatedly cut, and several wounds were inflicted on her hands, with which she instinctively tried to protect her throat and face. The miscreant inflicted in all no fewer than twelve wounds upon the unfortunate lady. So bitter was his fury that, after having hacked at her, and then having cut his own throat, he returned to the fell task of mangling his prostrate and helpless victim. These facts have been recorded in the depositions, which have already been officially taken. Colonel Willes, Mrs. Gordon's father, had left Lahore for Calcutta, on a summons from the Viceroy, shortly before the commission of the outrage, and only learnt of it by a telegram received on his journey down country,—a journey which a sense of duty forced him to pursue, notwithstanding an anxiety which must have been all but overwhelming. Colonel Willes is now in Calcutta, and we are happy to learn that he continues to receive favourable reports of the condition of Mrs. Gordon, although the tidings as to the condition of his youngest daughter, who was already an invalid, and on whom the shock of the terrible occurrence has had naturally an intense effect, are not so cheering. The kitmudghar's self-inflicted wound is very severe, but he continues alive."

THE Madras Mail—Colonel Weldon has very properly determined to send up for trial the case of Abdul Kurreem, a man of the 15th M. N. I., accused of defaming the character of Colonel Hearn of that Regiment. There seems no doubt whatever the man did defame his commanding officer's character, but because the character of Colonel Hearn had not been injured by the man's conduct, he would, by the strict rendering of the Penal Code, escape scot free. This seems to us a little unjust. A man may go about maligning your moral and professional character, but unless you can prove he has done you a positive injury he is safe. Would it not be fairer to let the onus probandi lie with the defamer, and unless he or she (for unfortunately these slanderers are often of the fairer sex) can satisfactorily prove to a magistrate or juror that no one believed them, fine or punish them heavily as a caution to others?

MR. R. CLARKE, officiating Judicial Assistant at Rawal Pindi, is transferred to Peshawar, in the place of Mr. Jenkyns, who takes Mr. Cunningham's place as Assistant Political Officer with Major Cavagnari, Mr. Cunningham resuming his own appointment of Under-Secretary to the Punjab Government.

THE Russki Mir of the 24th November says :—"We may dispute with English statesmen on the field of foreign policy, but no one can deny their energy and their adroitness in availing themselves of favorable circumstances. Owing to their foresight and rapidity of action, their war with Afghanistan will cost them but a tenth of the cost of our Khivan expedition. We cannot conceal from ourselves that the English chances of success in the matter of safeguarding the North-Western Frontier of India are at present favourable to realization, and that the occupation of the passes, which has long been the aim of Anglo-Indian endeavours, will strengthen the position of England, not only in Asia, but in Europe also. It is true the English risk much, but without great risks nothing serious can be undertaken in politics."

THE Statesman, Jan. 15—"We are assured positively that the Government has received intelligence that the Amir Shere Ali has committed suicide, by poisoning himself. We learn also that Yakub Khan has accepted, unconditionally, the terms proposed to him. A day or two will, in all likelihood, disclose whether the information is true or false. We should accept the 'official' denial concerning the Amir's death at once, but that we have before found these denials to be untrustworthy."

THE Pioneer—Among the native gentlemen of rank who have tendered their services to the Government in connection with the Afghan war, are the Nawab Mahomed Hussain Khan, Jageerdar of Sunwani, and his son the Nawab Ahmed Hussain Khan, to both of whom the thanks of Government have been communicated.

THE Statesman—We learn privately from London that a very powerful Committee has been appointed to dissect the Parliamentary papers that have been published concerning Afghanistan and Central Asia. The names of the Committee have been communicated to us in confidence, with a request that we would not publish them: but we may say that a determined effort will be made to lay bare to the country the hypocrisy and falsehood of the course followed by the Ministry, and by its too willing agency in this country. We long since warned the Government of India that they were 'making' history. And it is as we foresaw. This Afghan war will prove fatal to Lord Lytton's reputation, and to the facile counsellors, and secretaries, who lacked the courage to oppose his course. They would be themselves surprised, we think, to hear the names of the Committee who are preparing the indictment to be laid before the country, in the coming session of Parliament. From the time of Lord Lytton's arrival, we have strained every nerve to prevent the crime that was contemplated, and failed. It will, however, receive its exposure and punishment.

WE South of India Observer have been requested to ask, why Mr. Brough Smyth's last monthly report has not yet been made public. Considering the anxiety at the present time for information regarding the gold fields, the reticence of Government does not commend itself.

THE Englishman—The Legislative Council has now fairly entered upon its winter session, and an attempt will, we presume, be made in the course of the next few weeks to bring before the public some of the results of its long repose. Some such justification would certainly seem to be needed for a department which has grown to be one of the most costly branches of the administration, but which contributes nothing to the executive resources of the State. An ingenious correspondent of the Pioneer amused himself some weeks ago with a calculation that every section, passed last year at Simla, had cost the tax-payers of the country Rs. 4,000; and, however fallacious such an argument may be, it is certain that the Legal Member of Council, his two secretaries, his registrar and establishment, and the five or six official members who are removed from their normal duties in order to assist him in the task of legislation, constitute a body too important and too expensive to allow us to regard with indifference the amount of work which they perform, or the degree in which that work conduces to the interests of the Empire. Besides the splendid salary of the Legal Member himself the Legislative Council costs, we believe, over two lakhs a year. This would be no extravagant sum if the country got for it the sound sense, the breadth of view, the professional acumen, the scientific scope, which might be expected from a trained lawyer, acting with a chosen body of experienced officials and deliberating in private with them on the various points in which the existing law requires re-adjustment. It would be difficult to pay too highly for first rate legal advice on the numerous problems which are involved in the government of a community so complex, so diverse, so often conflicting in interest and feeling, as the various provinces for which the Council has to legislate. It is absurd to suppose that the laws of a dozen great principalities each one of which is undergoing a more or less acute moral and social revolution, will continue to meet the requirements of society, or can be left to take care of themselves. Each new field of activity in which the Government makes itself felt, or in which private enterprise develops new conditions of life, calls for the legislator's thoughts and care.

THE Indian Daily News—We lately published a report of a case tried in the Court of the Joint-Magistrate of Alipore. It was headed "Chundy Churn Dass vs. W. Jameson and J. George," the defendants being respectively Chief Officer and Chief Engineer of the steamer Cyenus. These two men, it would seem from the evidence, deliberately threw Chundy Churn Dass, a ship's sircar, overboard, and—not to mince matters—tried as hard as they could to murder him. According to our report of the trial the Joint-Magistrate said he had no doubt that the complainant was pitched over board, and that Jameson and George were the men who had done the cowardly act. But he found an extenuating circumstance in their favour, the circumstance that the complainant had no business to be on board the vessel while it was in motion. A ship in moorings, he said, was like a house the door of which was open, but that was not the case with a vessel in motion. It is an extraordinary decision; and amongst other enquiries suggests these—Would it be lawful to try and murder a man travelling by express train going 60 miles an hour, when that train was not drawn up at some station platform? Or would it be a criminal offence to fire a pistol at a man on horse-back when his horse was standing still, and a mere matter of 700 rupees fine if the man happened to be cantering? We have no desire just now to compare the relative merits and capabilities of ships and trains and horses from a murdering point of view, but it occurs to us that where there is deliberate intention shown to murder a man, fines of 100 or 200 rupees on the men who try to commit the murder are a ridiculous farce. That might not matter much if such sentences did not carry with them encouragement, to other ruffians to go and do likewise. As the Hindoo Patriot says :—"Here was a man, who was wantonly thrown into the river, and would have probably met with a watery grave if he did not know how to swim, and if the tow-boat had not come to his aid in time—all this was, however, accidental—and the sons of Neptune who had indulged in that dangerous sport, if sport it was, were let off with a fine amounting to about a month's pay! May not the poor sircar ask—is this British justice?" We certainly do not think it is.

THE Madura correspondent of the South India Post writes :—"It is with painful feelings that I relate the following particulars of a most cowardly and cruel attack on the Sub-Magistrate of Chinnamanoor, a most intelligent officer of scrupulous honesty. On the evening of the 5th instant, this person accompanied by a friend went out to the tank of the place, some way off from the town. They were not long there, when four ruffians (on investigation it would appear they were set on by some of his bitter foes,) made their appearance, and all of a sudden one of them seized the Sub-Magistrate by the knot of his hair and cut it off, another dealt a cutting blow on the head, while the third aimed a sharp blade at his breast. The unfortunate victim threw out his left hand to parry this last and most dangerous attack, when one of his fingers was smashed. His companion meanwhile lay senseless on the ground from the effect of the blows he had received. On the approach of the people whom the victims' cries had attracted to the spot, the ruffians decamped, and there is no trace of them now. The wounds are serious, but hopes are entertained of their recovery."

IN a suit disposed of in the Court of Session of Bellary the other day, one Cuddapah Ramachendra Row, the second class Magistrate of Harpenhully, was charged with having, as a public servant, received a gratification other than legal remuneration, an offence punishable under section 161 of the Indian Penal Code. It would appear that an Inspector of Police, having obtained a warrant from the special Joint Magistrate to search for a stolen Note, proceeded to search the houses of two of the wealthiest merchants of the place. The Inspector carried off some jewels and certain documents, the latter of which he forwarded for the inspection of the accused. Upon this he issued a summons for the attendance of the merchants referred to, and made it appear that he would try them on a charge of cheating unless they offered him a sum of Rs. 2,000, which, however, was subsequently reduced to 1,000. A sum of Rs. 1,000 was accordingly tendered to and accepted by the accused. The assessors in the case were of opinion that the accused was not guilty, the charge preferred against him arising out of enmity, but the Session Judge held that there was sufficient evidence to establish the guilt of the prisoner. He therefore convicted Ramachendra Row and sentenced him to undergo rigorous imprisonment for two years and to pay a fine of Rs. 2,000, or in default of payment to undergo simple imprisonment for a further period of six months. Against this sentence the prisoner appealed to the High Court; but the Judges, after hearing the appellant's counsel and the Government pleader in support of the conviction, saw no ground for interfering with the sentence of the lower court, and accordingly dismissed the appeal.

THE Indian Mirror is greatly concerned for the reputation of the English Press. Our native contemporary thinks that :—"the English Press, though it may have been successful in misleading public opinion for a time, must, if it continue in its present course, soon cease to exercise any real influence on the British nation. In fact, the demoralisation of that Press has reached so great a height that it cannot go much higher before its disease must prove to its own cure, or the character of the once great and noble British Press will be irretrievably lost. When a Cabinet Minister, second only to the First Minister in Great Britain, has been twice convicted of deliberate prevarication and something worse, and still permitted to retain office, the state of public feeling must be far too much vitiated to appreciate the utter degradation of a Press that prostitutes its purity of character by advocating and justifying the cause of a party at the sacrifice of the interests of a nation. Oh, how art thou fallen, Lucifer, son of the morning! Truly, it has been left for the present generation to witness that the glory has departed from the Press of Great Britain, once the unflinching champion of the rights of the British nation and of the liberties of the human race; but now, alas, the hired and special pleading advocate of that Imperialism, which, wherever it has raised its head, has always set its foot and trampled upon justice and morality."

THE Standard, Dec. 27.—We are able to publish early news which ought to gladden even the most jealous of geographers, and make the hearts of all old Arctic navigators leap up within them out of simple delight. The great problem of the Siberian Polar Sea, which has vexed the souls of navigators ever since 1556, has been solved at last. The North-East passage has been forced. Capes Taimyr and Tscheljuskin have been doubled. The existence of an open waterway from North Cape and Archangel to Behring Straits has been put beyond doubt. And although it is hard indeed not to wish that the glory of such a success should have fallen to an English vessel, with an English captain and an English crew, our congratulations to Professor Nordenskiold upon a triumph which crowns the labours of his life need not, on that account, be the less hearty or sincere. Honour to whom honour is due. It is now three hundred and twenty-two years since Stephen Burrough, afterwards chief pilot of England, set sail from Gravesend in the little Searchthrift, and—is it not written in the pages of Hakluyt?—pushed his way to the Vaigatz and the gates of the Kara Sea. In his path followed Arthur Pet, of the Muscovy Company, and Jackman, Fobisher's friend and mate, who perished off Iceland. Later, in 1596, William Barentz, with Van Heemskerch and Corneliszom Rijp, doubled the northern point of Novaya Zemlya, where his bones still bleach. What a volume might not be written of these gallant old voyagers? But it is to the Russians, after all, rather than even to Barnetz himself, that the credit of the real hard work of Siberian Arctic navigation is due. It was always one of the wishes of Peter the Great that the whole northern coast of Siberia should be explored and mapped out, and but a few days before his death he sent off Vitus Behring to the then extreme known north of Siberia with orders there to build himself ships, and to follow the coast line till it led him into the China Seas. Between the Kara Sea to the west and Behring Straits to the east, there jut out northward the two great promontories of Taimyr and Tscheljuskin—the Malea of Siberian navigators—neither of which, until now, has ever been doubled by a sea-going vessel. "The Russians," Mr. Markham tells us in his "Threshold of the Unknown Regions," "in very early times constantly went from Archangel to the north of Obi, creeping along between the land and the ice in the sea of Kara, and, usually hauling their boats or lodias across the isthmus between Kara Bay and the gulf of the Obi. In the last century several expeditions were sent by the Russian Government in the same direction, and vessels reached the north by the Pyasina on the west side of the northern point of Siberia and the Khatanga on the east side. But no navigator has ever doubled that most northern cape of the Asiatic continent." What no navigator had ever done when Mr. Markham wrote, now five years ago, it has at last fallen to Professor Nordenskiold to achieve.

WARRANTS FOR THE ARREST OF DIRECTORS OF NURSEY KESSOWJEE'S FOUR MILLS.

ABOUT 2 p. m. on Saturday last, Mr. Starling, with Mr. Muljee, the solicitor who instructed him and his clients, attended at the Fort Police Court to lay informations against, and apply for warrants for the arrest of, the directors of the Nursey, the Colaba, the New Fleming, and the New Alexandra Spinning and Weaving Companies, to which Nursey Kessowjee and Co. were the secretaries, treasurers, and agents. Mr. Cooper, the chief presidency magistrate, having left the court the parties had to return. About 4 p. m., they proceeded to Mr. Cooper's bungalow, Malabar Hill, but found that the magistrate had gone out. Eventually the informations were laid about 7 p. m., and after they had been interpreted to the informant, Mr. Cooper ordered warrants to issue against the parties named in the four informations, namely Kessowjee Naik, his son Nursey Kessowjee, Ghellabhoy Puddumsey, Cursetjee Nusserwanjee Cama, and Sakurchund Nagurdas. The informations against the directors of the Nursey and the New Fleming Companies were laid by Mathoradas Lowjee, a merchant and shroff; and those against the directors of the Colaba and the New Alexandra Companies were laid by Cullianjee Narronjee, moonim of Waghjee Coorjee. In substance the four informations, with a few variations as to amounts and other particulars, were nearly alike.

The directors of the Nursey and Colaba Spinning Companies are Kessowjee Naik, Nursey Kessowjee, Cursetjee Nusserwanjee Cama, and Ghellabhoy Pudumsey.

The directors of the New Fleming and New Alexandra Spinning Companies are four persons abovenamed and Sakurchund Nagurdas.

Mathoradas Lowjee, in his information against the directors of the Nursey Spinning Company, says,—I am a merchant and deal in cotton and lend money on interest. I reside in Modykhana Street in the Fort. About the year 1876, the Nursey Spinning and Weaving Company, Limited, was registered under the Indian Company's Act of 1866. At the time of the happening of the events hereinafter set forth, Kessowjee Naik, Cursetjee Nusserwanjee Cama, Ghellabhoy Padumsey, and Nursey Kessowjee were the directors, and Nursey Kessowjee was the secretary, treasurer, and agent of the company. Kessowjee Naik and Nursey Kessowjee stood in the relationship to each other of father and son, and Ghellabhoy Padumsey was a cousin of Kessowjee Naik, being the son of his maternal uncle. Cursetjee Nusserwanjee Cama and Nursey Kessowjee were together joint agents of the Colaba Spinning Company. It was the duty of Nursey Kessowjee, as such secretary, treasurer, and agent, to receive all sums of money due to the company and to hold the same for and on behalf of it, paying thereout from time to time such sums as might be required to be expended on account of the business of the company. By the articles of association, provision was made for the loan by Nursey Kessowjee of such sum of money as might be required in the business thereof, but no provision was made, nor authority given, for money belonging to the company to be lent or used by Nursey Kessowjee for his own use. Nevertheless he, with the knowledge and consent of his co-directors, did from time to time, during the year 1878, fraudulently and dishonestly misappropriate to his own purposes divers large sums of money amounting in the whole (after deducting amounts repaid by Nursey Kessowjee and crediting sums due to him for commission as secretary, treasurer, and agent) to the sum of about Rs. 7,42,752, the whole of which sum is now due by Nursey Kessowjee to the company. (An account of Nursey Kessowjee in the books of the company, showing that the amounts and dates of such misappropriations is annexed to the information, together with certain documents referred to therein.) About the 11th December 1878, the company had incurred liabilities to the extent of about Rs. 10,58,177, that is to say—

For loans from different persons	Rs.	7,83,900
Amount due to cotton merchants	,,	85,700
Amount due to Hongkong Bank	,,	10,000
Amount due on account of dishonoured hoondies	,,	1,70,000
Debts due to sundry merchants	,,	8,577
	Total Rs....	10,58,177

And the company were possessed of assets in the shape of cotton, yarn, cloth, and stores of the value of about Rs. 1,50,000 only. Nevertheless the directors falsely and fraudulently represented to the New Bank of Bombay that the debts of the company amounted only to about Rs. 5,50,060; and that the value of the cotton, yarn, cloth and stores was about Rs. 2,50,000, and that a loan of Rs. 50,000 was required by the company for the purposes of paying off loans which were then about to fall due, and requested from the Bank a loan of the last mentioned sum. (Copies of the resolution of the directors authorizing the loan and of the letter written and statement made to the Bank, containing the false and fraudulent representations are annexed to the information.) Relying on the statements as true, the Bank advanced the company, for the said purposes on the 11th December 1878, a loan of Rs. 50,000, but the directors did not apply the sum to the purposes of the company, but dishonestly permitted Nursey Kessowjee dishonestly to misappropriate it, or the greatest portion of it, to his own use. A copy of the cotton, yarn, cloth, and stores on the 26th December 1878 is annexed; and the informant says it appears from the statement furnished by Cursetjee Nusserwanjee Cama, a director of the company, that the value of the cotton and stores was on the 25th December 1878 substantially the same as on the 11th December 1878. I am a shareholder in the company, and I charge the abovementioned directors with having committed the following criminal misappropriation under section 403, criminal breach of trust under sections 408 and 409, and cheating and thereby inducing the delivery of property under section 420 of the Indian Penal Code, and with having abetted the said offences; and I pray that warrants may be issued for the arrest of the said directors that they may be apprehended and dealt with according to law; and I also pray that search warrants may be issued to search for and bring into this court all the books of the company and also of Nursey Kessowjee and of Kessowjee Naik.

Mathoradas Lowjee, in his second information against the directors of the New Fleming Spinning Company, stated among other things :—Ghellabhoy Pardoon is a merchant trading under the name of Vadilal Sakuldhund, who are the agents of Nursey Kessowjee for the purpose of selling the whole of the cloth manufactured by the four mills. By the articles of association it was provided that the agent shall not keep in his hands more than Rs. 5,000 of the monies of the company. During the months of August September, October, November, and December 1878, Nursey Kessowjee appropriated more Rs. 9,80,398, which sum is now due by him to the company. On the 11th December 1878, the directors obtained a loan of Rs. 1,00,000 from the Bank of Bombay, falsely and fraudulently representing that the debts of the company amounted to Rs. 5,40,000 only, that there were 787 unallotted shares, and that the stores, coals, &c., on hand were of the value of Rs. 4,40,000, whereas in truth the debts amounted nearly to Rs. 8,00,000; there were not 787 unallotted shares, and the stores in hand were of the value of less than Rs. 1,60,000. On the 20th November 1878, the directors drew hoondies on the firm of Shamjee Nursey and Co., of Calcutta, to the extent of Rs. 2,00,000 and sold the same at a very heavy and ruinous rate of discount to Dr. Sidney Smith; and the proceeds, or the greater portion of them, were at once fraudulently misappropriated by Nursey Kessowjee. Shamjee Nursey is the nephew of Nursey Kessowjee, who has a partner in his business in Calcutta under the name of Shamjee Nursey and Co. At the time of the drawing of the bills this firm was not indebted to the company.

Cullianjee Narronjee, in his information against the directors of the Colaba Spinning Company, states among other things :—By the articles of association, Nursey Kessowjee was not to keep in his hands more than Rs. 5,000 belonging to the company, and was bound to give notice to the directors whenever he had more than that amount in his hands. Nevertheless he had misappropriated about Rs. 3,66,300, the whole of which is now due by him. On the 11th December 1878, the company was indebted to the amount of about Rs. 10,07,700; and the value of the stock in hand was Rs. 1,00,000; and on the same day, the directors misrepresented to the Bank of Bombay that the company's debts amounted to Rs. 6,00,000, and that the stores were worth Rs. 3,50,000. In consequence of these false representations, the Bank advanced Rs. 50,000, the whole or greater portion of which was misappropriated by Nursey Kessowjee.

Cullianjee Narrondas, in his information against the directors of the New Alexandra Spinning Company, states among other things :—With the knowledge and consent of the directors of the company, Nursey Kessowjee had in October, November, and December 1878 misappropriated about Rs. 6,13,735, the whole of which is still due by him to the company. On the 11th December 1878, the debts of the company amounted to Rs. 10,05,194, and the value of the stores was about Rs. 11,61,912. Nevertheless on the same day, the directors falsely and fraudulently represented to the Bank of Bombay, that the debts were only Rs. 5,75,000 and that the stores were of the value of Rs. 2,75,000. In consequence of those false representations, the Bank advanced the company Rs. 1,00,000, out of which Rs. 97,706 were appropriated by Nursey Kessowjee to his own use.

We learn that yesterday (Sunday,) Mr. Leith on behalf of Nursey Kessowjee, Mr. Lynch for Ghellabhoy Padumsay, and Mr. Bhaishunker for Sakulchund Nagurdas, attended at Mr. Cooper's bungalow and offered to surrender their respective clients, requesting at the same time that the warrants might not be executed against them. The magistrate directed that the warrants should not issue until 11 o'clock to-day (Monday,) when the accused should appear before him in court; and that in default of appearance, the warrants should go.

In England the "singing gallery" is not unconnected with traditions the reverse of harmonious, but it has been left for America to show a "church" can be brought to grief and its pastor to trouble by a brass band. It seems that the Reverend Mr. Switser, of the First Lutheran Church, Saddle River, began badly with his people, having got involved in a lawsuit with a "prayerful elder" about a triangular bit of land, one hundred feet long by seventeen inches wide at the base. This led to illfeeling, which was increased when the unlucky minister interfered with the choir. Now a brass band in the Church had reason to be proud of its band, for did not the fourteen members play "Whoa, Emma" and other favourite pieces with zeal, and wear a handsome uniform of blue with crimson and gold trimmings, beaver hats, gilded ornaments, and white feathers? The band, it appears, was a source of pledge, in return for their musical services, of selling gingerbeer and confectionery to the Sunday-school. Not content with this, they added Havanas at "three for a quarter," and then the pastor fought the time had come to protest. But the measure of iniquity was not filled up. The band played at a dance in a hotel, and Garry Ackerman, the leader, actually remained in a place where liquor was sold until after ten p.m., while rumour declared that the E flat alto had been seen to drink a glass of beer, and the big drum heard to order a claret-punch. Inquisition followed, and the E flat alto was excommunicated, the big drum, about whose guilt a doubt existed, being left to his own conscience. Following this, a number of "members" seceded from the Church, and charges were brought against Mr. Switser, which "a dozen clergymen in white ties" came from New York and Newark to investigate. Mr. Switser, it appears, was in the habit of selling pews "at forty farmers' teams there" to anyone who came and bidding the pews. Mr. Switser sat at marble-topped table, and the judges, a "terrible show," were on the platform; but they were not grim judges. From time to time they clinched heartily "at the evidence, and even the accused "smiled audibly." Only the band were serious, the first cornet beginning his evidence with "When we hired Switser." This was more than the clerical gentleman could stand, and the first cornet was told that business matters and when it is dry it becomes as hard and smooth as the Val de Travers asphalte roadway. There is an old story told of the officer who first introduced this kind of "metal," if it may be called by that name. He came from one of the other Presidencies to the Bengal side, and as he went along teaching them the proper mode of proceeding the words recorded about Omar were applied to him: "He came, he saw and kunkured." The smoother of path is a benefactor to his species," so says Confucius; and this kunkurer undoubtedly deserved every praise for the system which he introduced, for it certainly made a good road. There was no such road in this part of the world when the former Afghan war took place, and how invaluable it would be because we want a few miles of railway. The grumble indicates how we have progressed during the short period.—Bawul Pindee letter in Daily News.
